LEGISLATION

Migration Act 1958 (Cth), s 65

Migration Regulations 1994 (Cth), r 1.15A, Schedule 2 cls 820.211, 820.221

STATEMENT OF DECISION AND REASONS

APPLICATION FOR REVIEW

1. This is an application for review of a decision of a delegate of the Minister for Immigration on 11 November 2016 to refuse to grant the applicant a Partner (Temporary) (Class UK) visa under s.65 of the Migration Act 1958 (the Act).
2. The applicant applied for the visa on 16 May 2015 on the basis of her relationship with her sponsor. At that time, Class UK contained only one subclass: Subclass 820 (Partner (Temporary)). The criteria for the grant of this visa are set out in Part 820 of Schedule 2 to the Migration Regulations 1994 (the Regulations). The primary criteria must be satisfied by at least one applicant. Other members of the family unit, if any, who are applicants for the visa need satisfy only the secondary criteria.
3. The delegate refused to grant the visa on the basis that the visa applicant did not satisfy cl.820.211 because she did not meet the definition of spouse.
4. The applicant was represented in relation to the review by her registered migration agent.
5. For the following reasons, the Tribunal has concluded that the matter should be remitted for reconsideration.

CONSIDERATION OF CLAIMS AND EVIDENCE

6. The issue in the present case is whether the parties are in a genuine spouse relationship.

Whether the parties are in a spouse or de facto relationship

7. Clauses.820.211(2)(a) and 820.221 require that at the time the visa application was made, and at the time of this decision, the applicant is the spouse or de facto partner of an Australian citizen or Australian permanent resident or an eligible New Zealand citizen. In the present case the applicant claims to be the spouse of the sponsor who is an Australian citizen.
8. 'Spouse' is defined in s.5F of the Act and provides that a person is the spouse of another where the two persons are in a married relationship. Persons in a married relationship must be married to each other under a marriage that is valid for the purposes of the Act, there must be a mutual commitment to a shared life as a married couple to the exclusion of all others, the relationship must be genuine and continuing, and the couple must live together, or not live separately and apart on a permanent basis: s.5F(2)(a)-(d). In forming an opinion about these matters, regard must be had to all of the circumstances of the relationship. This includes evidence of the financial and social aspects and the nature of the parties' household and their commitment to each other as set out in r.1.15A(3), which is extracted in the attachment to this decision.

Are the parties validly married?

9. If the parties are validly married, they may meet the requirements of a spousal relationship, but not a de facto relationship. On the evidence (an Australian Marriage Certificate), the parties were married to each other under a marriage that is valid for the purposes of the Act as required by s.5F(2)(a).

Are the other requirements for a spousal relationship met?

- Financial aspects of the relationship – including joint ownership of assets; joint liabilities; extent of pooling of financial resources; any legal obligations owed to the other party; any sharing of day-to-day household expenses.
10. The Tribunal is satisfied with the evidence in their submission that they have indicated a spousal financial relationship including pooling of their financial resources and sharing of day-to-day household expenses.
 - Nature of the household – including any joint responsibility for care and support of children; parties' living arrangements; and any sharing of housework.
 11. The Tribunal is satisfied with the evidence in their submission that the parties have indicated they share a household.
 - Social aspects of the relationship – including whether parties represent themselves to other people as being married to each other; the opinion of friends and acquaintances about the nature of the relationship; and any basis on which the persons plan and undertake joint social activities.
 12. The parties have provided written and photographic evidence of the acceptance of their relationship by friends and family members. The Tribunal is satisfied that they maintain the social relationship aspects of spouses.
 - Nature of persons' commitment to each other – including duration of the relationship; the length of time they have lived together; degree of companionship and emotional support they draw from each other; and whether they see the relationship as long-term.
 13. The parties have indicated in their submission that they see their relationship as long-term. They are financially impecunious but nevertheless have given each other emotional support and commitment as would be expected of spouses.
 - Any other relevant considerations.
 14. The Tribunal has had the benefit of a comprehensive submission from the parties addressing the considerations in reg.1.15A(3) (T1, f.132-136).
 15. The Tribunal has considered r.1.15A(3) matters and makes the following findings against s.5F(2)(b)-(d). The parties have a mutual commitment to a shared life to the exclusion of others; a genuine and continuing relationship; and they live together or not separately and apart on a permanent basis.
 16. On the basis of the above the Tribunal is satisfied that the requirements of s.5F(2) are met at the time the visa application was made and the time of this decision.
 17. The Tribunal finds that the applicant was sponsored by her sponsoring partner at time of application and continues to be so sponsored at time of decision meeting cl.820.211(2)(c) and cl.820.221. She is also a substantive visa holder and meets the Schedule 3 requirements in cl.820.211(2)(d).
 18. Therefore, the applicant meets cl.820.211(2) and cl.820.221.

19. Given the findings above, the appropriate course is to remit the application for the visa to the Minister to consider the remaining criteria for a Subclass 820 visa.

DECISION

20. The Tribunal remits the application for a Partner (Temporary) (Class UK) visa, with the direction that the applicant meets the following criteria for a Subclass 820 (Partner (Temporary)) visa:
- cl.820.211 of Schedule 2 to the Regulations
 - cl.820.221 of Schedule 2 to the Regulations

1.15A Spouse

- (1) For subsection 5F (3) of the Act, this regulation sets out arrangements for the purpose of determining whether 1 or more of the conditions in paragraphs 5F (2) (a), (b), (c) and (d) of the Act exist.
- (2) If the Minister is considering an application for:
 - (a) a Partner (Migrant) (Class BC) visa; or
 - (b) a Partner (Provisional) (Class UF) visa; or
 - (c) a Partner (Residence) (Class BS) visa; or
 - (d) a Partner (Temporary) (Class UK) visa;

the Minister must consider all of the circumstances of the relationship, including the matters set out in subregulation (3).

- (3) The matters for subregulation (2) are:
 - (a) the financial aspects of the relationship, including:
 - (i) any joint ownership of real estate or other major assets; and
 - (ii) any joint liabilities; and
 - (iii) the extent of any pooling of financial resources, especially in relation to major financial commitments; and
 - (iv) whether one person in the relationship owes any legal obligation in respect of the other; and
 - (v) the basis of any sharing of day to day household expenses; and
 - (b) the nature of the household, including:
 - (i) any joint responsibility for the care and support of children; and
 - (ii) the living arrangements of the persons; and
 - (iii) any sharing of the responsibility for housework; and
 - (c) the social aspects of the relationship, including:
 - (i) whether the persons represent themselves to other people as being married to each other; and
 - (ii) the opinion of the persons' friends and acquaintances about the nature of the relationship; and
 - (iii) any basis on which the persons plan and undertake joint social activities; and
 - (d) the nature of the persons' commitment to each other, including:
 - (i) the duration of the relationship; and
 - (ii) the length of time during which the persons have lived together; and
 - (iii) the degree of companionship and emotional support that the persons draw from each other; and
 - (iv) whether the persons see the relationship as a long term one.
- (4) If the Minister is considering an application for a visa of a class other than a class mentioned in subregulation (2), the Minister may consider any of the circumstances mentioned in subregulation (3).
